

XY and More

Lyrics and music: Laurent Vulliet, 2021
Interpretation: High5 (feat. Laura Scaglia)

What a nice day, looking at a rainbow
10/11, shady lights of autumn
Crowd of people colored and playful on the go
Bright as a queen, moving the way winds blow
High on the heels quite easy to spot'em
Showing his pride, revealed under the sun, here we go

X, Y and more, many letters
In the alphabet
Shaping words. Get-togethers
X, Y and more. Feeling right
Making sense
Whatever it takes, day and night

Dropping her joint, decided and released
Inside and out, no closet no lockdown
Stands up and say: I get to go meet her and feast!

Why giving up, attracted on both sides?
Life comes and goes, said he while falling down
Being oneself, about to fly away

X, Y and more, many letters
In the alphabet
Shaping words. Get-togethers
X, Y and more. Feeling right
Making sense
Whatever it takes, day and night

Out for a journey
Writing in the margins
Turning a page. From A to Z

Come closer
I'll tell you
Like Rev. King
I have a dream!

X, Y and more, many letters
In the alphabet
Shaping words. Get-togethers
X, Y and more. Feeling right
Making sense
Whatever it takes, day and night
